THE EVENING MAIL'S KID KARTOON SERIES

Open to Children of 16 Years and Under

Do you want to be a cartoonist? Get into the contest and send your drawings to Kid Kartoon Editor, The Evening Mail, 25 City Hall Place, New York. A cartoon is printed every day, the lucky ones being selected by Mr. Goldberg and Mr. Voight, The Evening Mail's cartoonists. There are no prizes, but from time to time Mr. Goldberg and Mr. Voight will write short talks to those who participate in the series, pointing out just what the young artists will have to do to become regular cartoonists.

Drawings should be made on white paper with India ink.

Write your name, address and age on the back of your drawing.
